

Captain Went Down With Ship.

London.—It is taken for granted here that Capt. E. J. Smith of the Titanic went down with his ship. The White Star line issued a statement saying that the only officers known to have been saved are: Second Officer Laughtoller, Third Officer Pitman, Fourth Officer Boxhall, Fifth Officer Lower.

News of Disaster Suppressed.

Montreal, Can.—Wireless dispatches indicate that the sinking of the liner Titanic was known to the officials of the White Star line long before it was made public, and at the very time that reassuring reports asserting that all on board had been saved were being given out.
